

Head of Equities Research

Wheatfromchaff Ltd

Somerset

JOB ADVERTISEMENT

Unique opportunity for an experienced Equities Analyst to join the team behind www.crowdrating.co.uk based in the heart of Somerset

You would be at the heart of our product development process, working with the founder team to develop our bespoke analytical tools and processes to support additional services in new markets.

You will be leading our current team of research analysts and assisting in the recruitment, training and supervision additional staff. You will also have frequent interaction with our client base of exciting entrepreneurs and investors.

In addition you will be leading our development of a flexible network of experienced external analysts we can call on as required to provide additional research insight.

You will need to have a degree level accounting or finance qualification and at least ten years commercial analysis experience. Proven supervisory / management experience essential. You will have strong communication, team building and coaching skills

You will have a proven track record of delivering excellent equities research on early stage businesses. In addition you will have acquired an extensive network of research analysts across multiple sectors and providers.

Start Date: June 2016
Location: Somerset
Salary: [£TBC] depending on experience
Benefits: Statutory Pension
Private Medical Cover
Share Option Scheme

Please apply to alex.heath@wheatfromchaff.co.uk including a CV and cover letter